

Japanese Health Policy Institute – www.healthpolicy-institute.org/en

Japanese Heart Rhythm Society

The Society was founded as a workshop group in 1977 and reorganized into Japanese Society for Pacing and Electrophysiology in 1986. The activities of the Society include education for member, enlightenment to public, international relationship, and others, related to cardiac arrhythmias.

Joseph Foundation – www.safeathletes.org

We support policy and practice that helps lower the risk of tragedy in schools due to Sudden Cardiac Arrest. Our goals include AED programs in all schools; increased bystander response capabilities (CPR/AED) among staff and students; standardized cardiac screening for student athletes and others at risk.

Keep it Beating

Livewires – www.livewiresni.org

Livewires is a voluntary group set up to support people in N.Ireland who have had ICDs fitted. Support, advice and reassurance are given, not only to patients, but also to their families and carers.

Midatlantic Cardiovascular Foundation – www.midatlanticcardio.com

Midatlantic Cardiovascular formed in 1995 with the merger of five groups of physicians who shared a common vision; 'The ability to offer comprehensive cardiovascular services with compassion and respect in convenient locations throughout Central Maryland.'

Norwegian Heart and Lung Foundation – www.lhl.no

NHS Alliance – www.nhsalliance.org

The NHS Alliance is the only organisation that brings together PCTs with practices, clinicians with managers and board members - and NHS Primary Care with its patients.

PACE – www.paceafrica.org.za

Preventing sudden death in young people.

PACES – www.paediatricepsociety.org

Pediatric & Congenital Electrophysiology Society, a non-profit organization, is an international group of physicians and allied professionals dedicated to improving the care of children and young adults with cardiac rhythm disturbances.

Pacemaker Club – www.pacemakerclub.com

Our purpose is to help cardiac pacemaker and implantable cardioverter defibrillator (ICD) recipients meet, share information and support each other.

Parent Heart Watch – www.parentheartwatch.org

Protecting kids from Sudden Cardiac Arrest. Many Families, One Cause, A National Voice.

SADS Canada – www.sads.ca

The mission of The Canadian SADS Foundation is "to save the lives and support the families of children and young adults who are genetically predisposed to sudden death due to heart rhythm disorders".

SADS Foundation – www.sads.org

To save the lives and support the families of children and young adults who are genetically predisposed to sudden death due to heart rhythm abnormalities.

SADS UK – www.sadsuk.org.uk

The Ashley Jolly SAD Trust, is a charity that helps to prevent premature loss of life and to improve the lives of those adversely affected by cardiac arrhythmia.

Saving Young Hearts – www.savingyounghearts.org

The Mission – To advocate education and awareness programs about sudden cardiac arrest in children and young adults; Properly place automated external defibrillators (AEDs) in Florida schools and other places where youth regularly congregate; Encourage and facilitate CPR/AED education; To offer free heart screenings to school aged children for early detection.

Simon's Fund – www.simonsfund.org

To save a child's life . . . and then another, by raising awareness about Long QT Syndrome and other heart conditions that lead to sudden cardiac arrest and death.

Society of Cardiology of the Russian Federation – www.cardiosite.ru

STARS (Syncope Trust And Reflex anoxic Seizures) – www.stars.org.uk

"Working together with individuals, families and medical professionals to offer support and information on Syncope and Reflex Anoxic Seizures".

STARS – US – www.stars-us.org

Based in the United States, STARS is a national non-profit organization, committed to improving the quality of life for individuals and their families coping with Syncope conditions. Their main focus is educating and supporting sufferers, their families, the medical community and general public by offering a support system where they can obtain knowledge and understanding of these conditions.

Sudden Cardiac Arrest Association – www.suddencardiacarrest.org

Sudden Cardiac Arrest Association (SCAA) identifies and unites survivors, ICD patients, those at risk of sudden cardiac arrest, as well as others who are interested in being advocates on SCAA issues in their communities and beyond.

Sudden Cardiac Death in the Young – www.scdyoung.ie

"To support affected families and effect change so that others may live". The group was set up in 2006 in association with the Irish Heart Foundation and grew from the friendship of parents who suffered the loss of a young person to sudden cardiac death.

STIN – www.stin.nl

Dedicated to care for Dutch ICD recipients and their partners.

Swiss Heart Foundation – www.swisheart.ch

Taiwan Heart Foundation - www.tsoc.org.tw/THF_web/index.htm

Taiwan Society of Cardiology – www.tsoc.org.tw/

The Travis R.Roy Sudden Cardiac Arrest Fund – www.thetravisfund.org

Our mission is to raise public awareness about Sudden Cardiac Arrest; to encourage at-risk people to have heart screenings; to protect kids from Sudden Cardiac Arrest and death by encouraging people to learn CPR and by the placement of AED's in California public schools and facilities.

Take It To Heart – www.takeittoheart.org

Take It To Heart™ is an all-volunteer organization facilitated by the parents of children who have died from sudden cardiac arrest. In the fall of 2006, Take It To Heart™ became a Project of The Foundation for Enhancing Communities, a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization that serves South Central Pennsylvania.